

“When we want mood experiences, we go to concerts or museums. When we want a meaningful emotional experience, we go to the storyteller.”

– Robert McKee –

Universitat de Lleida
Vicerectorat d'Activitats Culturals
i Projecció Universitària

Universitat de Lleida
Departament d'Anglès
i Lingüística

A DAL-Drama Show

Free Entrance

A very special guide moves a whole group of tourists through the Shakespearean Museum up to the last room, where the “Love Collection” is displayed. Surprisingly, some visitors seem to be imbued with the spirit of some of the portraits they admire... Prepare yourselves for an amusing three-dimensional journey across time and space in which you will find out to what extent Shakespearean love talks about us and the complexity of our present-day relationships. This is the result of a short but intense eight-week student-theatre workshop, which we are delighted to share with you. Enjoy it!

Cast:

David Poza as Billy the Guide and Oberon
Diana Rodríguez as Julia and Juliet
Tomás Labrador as Ronnie and Romeo
Carles Masó as Hammond and Hamlet
Sandra Fedelich as Olivia and Ophelia
Jèssica Balcells as Paula and Portia
Cristina Boros as Melissa and Nerissa
Iris Calderó as Leila Beth and Lady Macbeth
Francesc Martí as Max and Macbeth
Lidia Potoroaca as Tina and Titania
Elisabet Cuadrat as “P.” and Puck
Julia Danilov as “B.” and Bottom

Assistant-directors team: Isabel Ruiz and Raquel Moreres; Irati Diert and Alba Pedrós; Olga Areny, Maribel Contreras and Marina Monturiol; Pau Grau and Rebeca López; Ariadna Cañadas and Judit Foraster

Researchers and assistant-production team: Paula Boanda, Dominika Dankowska, Olivia Nechita and Marta Solsona

Dramaturgist and director: Núria Casado

Dialect consultant for Shakespearean scenes: Graham Evans

Arrangement and conduction of choral music: Jordi Cano

Design of Juliet’s balcony and Titania’s forest: Ferran Farré

Lighting, video and sound effects: Óscar Sánchez H.

Executive production: Departament d’Anglès i Lingüística with Vicerectorat d’Activitats Culturals i Projecció Universitària de la Universitat de Lleida

Acknowledgements: Josep Maria Cots, Julián Garrido, Sònia Mas and Olga Rovira